Classroom Expectations

1. Come to class prepared to learn and be in your assigned seat when the bell rings.

2. Treat every individual in the classroom with dignity and respect.

3. Cell phones must be powered off and placed in the phone box holder at the start of the class.

4. Absolutely NO eating or drinking at the workstations. No containers without lids (i.e., pop-top cans) are allowed in the room.

5. All school rules as outlined in your student handbook will be enforced and all computer usage policies should be followed.

6. Permission to leave the room will only be granted with a planner.

7. Remain in your seat until the bell rings.

8. Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated. Everyone is capable of doing their own work. Anyone caught cheating will receive a 0 grade.

9. Stay on task and use your time wisely so you don’t fall behind.
Grading & Assignments

- Regular class attendance and participation are required and necessary for your success in the class.
- You are responsible for completing work missed because of an absence(s).
- Late work will result in a grade lower than an A.
- MISTAR grade book will be used for this course and grades will be updated within a few days of all completed work. Parents and students are asked to check this frequently and contact me if you think there are any discrepancies.
- All assignments will be displayed on my Weebly website. The website is accessible outside the classroom. Please use this online tool as a reference for any days missed due to absence.

Grades for the semester will be based on points earned on assignments, homework, quizzes/tests and participation as well as a final examination given at the end of the semester. Grades are cumulative (do not restart each quarter) and are based on the following standard grading scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Total Percentage</th>

I have read the requirements, grading policy, and rules/conduct/consequences of unacceptable behaviors for this class as well as, the school-wide policies. I understand what I read and will conduct myself accordingly. I am aware that in order to pass this class, I must attend daily, be an active participant in All activities, be an active learner, complete All assignments, and bring All necessary materials (pen, paper, etc). If I do not understand any assignment and/or lecture given, I will ask for help. I know the grade I receive is the grade I have earned. I will take full responsibility for my actions.
